

YAK Agency

Communication agency based in Padua, specialized in the creation of customized communication projects for companies, institutions and organizations of international importance. Born from the merger of the ten-year experience of the two Paduan entrepreneurs Giovanni Cecolin and Marco Dalla Dea, today YAK Agency is an innovative agency that relies on the collaboration of a team of 25 professionals, as well as external collaborators, and provides integrated traditional communication services in Italian and English.

Active in the heart of Padua's Smart City, the agency offers multiple solutions to brands and entrepreneurial realities with sales, branding and visibility objectives: from the creation of websites to the design of a coordinated corporate image, from the strategy of advertising investments to the management of social networks and relations with the media, up to the conception and editorial production of magazines and house organs.
